

Mayor Ogden Proclaims the Week of January 10th Future Business Leaders of America Week

By Mike Antonelli - March 2, 2017

BY DANIEL SHELL, MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER, TuHS FBLA

Tualatin High School FBLA (Future Business Leaders of America) attended the January Council Meeting at the Juanita Pohl Center. At the meeting, Tualatin FBLA received a Proclamation from Mayor Lou Ogden, declaring that the week of January 10, 2017 to January 16, 2017, Future Business Leaders of America Week in the City of Tualatin. January 10th is commended as Future Business Leaders of America Week in the City of Tualatin based upon their achievements, service and community involvement.

Tualatin FBLA is the largest club at Tualatin High School and one of the largest clubs in the state of Oregon. On February 4th, Tualatin hosted the annual Regional Skills conference. Schools from across the region competed including: Tigard, Dayton, Scappoose, Gaston, Seaside and Netarts. Once again, Tualatin dominated. Tualatin FBLA had 88 placers in the top ten of the top ten events. There were 37 events members competed in, and Tualatin won 18 of the events.

According to Nolen Llanes, the Chapter competitions officer, "The regional competition was a great success. All of our members did a fantastic job!" Upcoming for Tualatin High School will be competing in the State Leadership Conference which is located in Portland, Oregon from April 6th to April 8th."

FBLA representatives receiving proclamation from Mayor Ogden at the January 10th meeting.

Daniel Shell is a junior at Tualatin High school and the Marketing and Communications officer for the Tualatin High School Future Business Leaders of America chapter. He enjoys running cross country and playing baseball, as well as being in the outdoors and adventuring in his free time.

Mike Antonelli

<http://tualatinlife.com/>